

Congratulations, Graduate!

For your Graduation, I've adopted part of a Karen House window in your honor!

Karen House Catholic Worker is a St. Louis house of hospitality for women and children who are homeless. The windows at Karen House are over 100 years old, and need replacing.

This gift will help provide a safer, more comfortable space for the women and kids who live at Karen House.